

MAJOR GENERAL ERDENEBAT BATSUURI

Appointed Force Commander of the Gang Suppression Force in 2026, Major General Erdenebat Batsuuri brings over three decades of military leadership experience, with deep expertise in peace support operations and multinational deployments.

He has held multiple senior command and staff positions in the Mongolian Armed Forces, including Chief of Staff of the Air Force Command and Director of the Lessons Learned Division. His extensive United Nations peacekeeping record spans deployments in Cyprus, South Sudan, Sudan, Sierra Leone, Kosovo, and Iraq.

Major General Batsuuri is a graduate of the U.S. Army War College, the Air Command and Staff College, and the Army Operations Course in Kingston, Canada.

Security ● Stability ● Sovereignty